

Heart and Hand House, Inc.

Since 1965 Heart and Hand House, Inc., has provided emergency assistance to the residents of Barbour County, West Virginia, in Christian response to community issues and identifiable needs in the area.

Our current programs include a food pantry; a home repair and construction program; assistance with utilities, rent, and certain medical expenses; providing layettes for newborn babies; a summer garden market; and a Christmas toy store.

a non-profit ministry affiliated with the United Methodist Church

Our ministry programs are funded by support from churches, foundations, civic groups, individuals, and through income from our two thrift stores.

How can you help?

Encourage your church or Sunday School to donate items for specific ministry programs.

Shop in our Thrift Stores or check out the items we have for sale on eBay.

Volunteer! Browse the list of volunteer job descriptions on our website or call and talk to our Volunteer Coordinator to see where you fit in.

Donate. Heart and Hand depends on your donations. Contributions may be made in person at our office on 110 Mason Street, Philippi, or by mail. Special gifts of stocks, bonds and real estate or planned giving through wills, trusts, life insurance, or other means may be arranged through the United Methodist Foundation of WV, Inc. (contact Rev. David Peters, President, United Methodist Foundation of WV, Inc., PO Box 3811, Charleston, WV 25338; phone 800-788-3746. ext. 45).
